Improvisation#7

Opening Thursday 19 February 2015 , 6:30 pm

ACME studio, 276 Oak Square, Stockwell, SW9 9AW London

32sqm is an initiative exclusively for Glassyard studio artist, funded and run by a Glassyard artist, launching in February 2015. The Glassyard houses around 40 artists in 25 studios over 2 floors. 32 sqm is a neutral space between the studio and a gallery, which provide a platform for artist to show their current practice.

Giancarlo Scagnolari opens 32sqm, with his work "Improvisation#7".

About his own work Scagnolari says: "There presence of the emptiness leaves a space to all the forms and the white. White such as a sheet is a tank of energy. The task of signs on the sheet is to drive the flow in figures that embody their secret power. Signs of fluctuation, lightness, lucidity and a natural balance."

Giancarlo Scagnolari (Lecco, 1966) has studied in the second half of eighties at the Academy of Belle Arts of Brera, where he actively participated in "Casa degli Artisti", the project of new generation of artist promoted from artists Luciano Fabro and Hidetoshi Nagasawa together a historical art Jole de Sanna.

Giancarlo Scagnolari is currently presenting his work at Spazioborgogno in Milano.
